Emergency medical assistance, evacuation and repatriation

If the Insured Person is diagnosed with COVID-19 commencing overseas and in the course of the Trip such that Asia Assistance International (AAI) medical advisor recommends hospitalisation, AAI will arrange for:

- a) Transfer to one of the nearest hospital, and AAI will organise and pay for emergency transport by ambulance or other means including assignment of a doctor and/or nurse to accompany the Insured Person, if necessary, to the nearest and most appropriate medical centre or hospital.
- b) If in the opinion of the AAI's medical advisor that it is necessary on medical grounds, to transfer with necessary medical supervision by any means (including, but not limited to, air ambulance, scheduled commercial flight, and road ambulance) to a hospital more appropriately equipped for the particular Injury or Illness, all costs for emergency medical transfer/ evacuation will be borne entirely by AAI.

After local treatment and/or, according to the medical opinion of the attending AAI's medical advisor, the medical condition of the Insured Person will not prevent the Insured Person of being repatriated with medical supervision as a regular passenger, AAI will organise and pay for the repatriation to Singapore by scheduled airline (economy class ticket unless it is deemed necessary in the opinion of the AAI medical advisor to fly by business class) and other appropriate means of transportation, including any supplementary cost of transportation to and from the airport, provided that the original return ticket is not valid for such repatriation, and provided that You surrender any unused portion of Your ticket to AAI. All decisions as to the means of transportation and the final destination will be made exclusively by the AAI's medical advisor. All costs for emergency medical repatriation will be borne entirely by AAI. In the event of death, AAI will organise and pay for the transportation of mortal remains to the airport in Singapore or burial overseas provided such costs shall not exceed the cost of transportation of mortal remains.

Asia Assistance International (AAI) special exclusions
